SUPER CHAMPION U-KWONG KING SOLOMON

Born 21/6/1968

CHOW OF THE CENTURY

*DOG OF THE YEAR ALL BREEDS FOR THE TWO YEARS
1970 & 1971 AND TOP WINNING UTILITY 1973*

WINNER OF 58 C.C.'s.

Never in the history of the breed has there been a Chow with a record to compare with that of 'Solly' and the above photograph shows a few reasons why; i.e. the glorious reach of neck, fine lay of shoulder, lovely tail set, the handsome masculine head, the well boned legs and cat feet that complete the picture, which shows the beautiful balance of the finest Chow that ever lived.

"The King" is at stud at a fee of 30 gns. to approved bitches and for the record is the sire of more puppies than any Chow champion being shown today. Outstanding amongst his progeny is Ch. Edlen Cressandra, Pup of the Year All Breeds 1973. Top dog, Top pup. TOP THAT.

Six other Stud Dogs of similar lines at 12 and 15 gns. and puppies now available.

Remember me ? CH. UKWONG FLEUR

In any case, I'll fill you in . . .

I was first shown at six months old and on that occasion won the Res. C.C. At my next two Championship Shows I won the C.C., B.O.B., Best of Group and the Puppy Stakes and a few days later won my third C.C., B.O.B., Reserve in the Group and Reserve in the Puppy Stakes. A Champion at three shows in ten days and at the tender age of eight months. After winning another six CC's I thought a trip to the U.S.A. would be fine, so I took a plane with Cliff and Viv Shryock to Los Angeles and history repeated itself, for in my first four shows I became an American Champion also. I'm getting a bit homesick now so I reckon I'll mosey around a while longer, then back to Fernilee and maybe have me a bit more fun, see you folks!
