5. Disqualification and Forfeit of Prizes.—A dog may be disqualified by the Committee of the Kennel Club from winning any award whether an objection has been lodged or not, if proved among other things to have been:

(a) Exhibited at an unrecognised Show.

(b) Exhibited by a person disqualified or suspended under Rules 15, 17 or 18 as from the date of the charge having been lodged at the Kennel Club and for the period of the disqualification or suspension.

If a dog is entered in a Class for which it is ineligible and is not withdrawn from competition before commencement of the judging of the class in question, the dog shall be disqualified. All such cases must be reported by the Exhibitor to the Show Secretary, and by the latter to the Kennel Club, and the Exhibitor may be fined at the discretion of the General Committee.

The owner of a dog disqualified for any of the above reasons is liable to forfeit all entry fees paid and all prize money won by such dog. The General Committee shall have power to fine Exhibitors who have made errors in their entry forms, or breaches of Show Regulations.

In the event of such fines not being paid within the time stipulated by the General Committee, the Exhibitor or Exhibitors may, at the discretion of the General Committee, be dealt with as if a complaint under Kennel Club Rule 17 had been lodged against him or them and proved to the satisfaction of the General Committee.

6. Separate entry forms must be filled up for the exhibits of each exhibitor and must be signed by the Exhibitor or his authorised agent in accordance with the provisions specified thereon. Entry forms must be accompanied by the appropriate fee.

Printed cards "For Sale" and "Not for Competition" may be placed over the benches, and in the case of a dog entered "Not for Competition" the name of the dog may also be displayed, but in no case may the lettering be larger than 1 inch. Exhibitors may display a board or card over their benches containing the name of the kennel, the name and address and telephone number of the owner only. The size of the board must not exceed 10 inches by 5 inches and the lettering must be black on white background and must not be larger than 1 inch.

11. No dog shall be absent from its bench except for the purpose of being prepared for exhibition, judged, exercised or by order of the Veterinary Surgeon or Show Committee. After being prepared for exhibition, the dog must be replaced on its bench. No dog shall be absent from its bench for the purpose of being exercised at any time for longer than fifteen minutes. No dog shall be allowed in a judging ring other than actual exhibits in the class being judged. All dogs when off their benches must be on a lead throughout the duration of the Show except in the exercising area, or when competing in the ring in an Obedience Class. Prize Cards, award cards or rosettes awarded at the Show may be displayed on the bench, but not in the ring, except when judging is taking place for Groups and Best in Show.

12. Committee the Sole Authority.—The General Committee shall be the sole authority for the interpretation of these Rules and of the By-Laws and Regulations made thereunder; and the decision of the General Committee upon any question of interpretation or upon any matter affecting the Club or dogs or Dog Shows and not provided for by these Rules or by the Constitution and By-Laws or any Regulations shall be final and binding.
